

BASKETBALL TRAINING FACILITY

The Pyramid Scottsdale, AZ

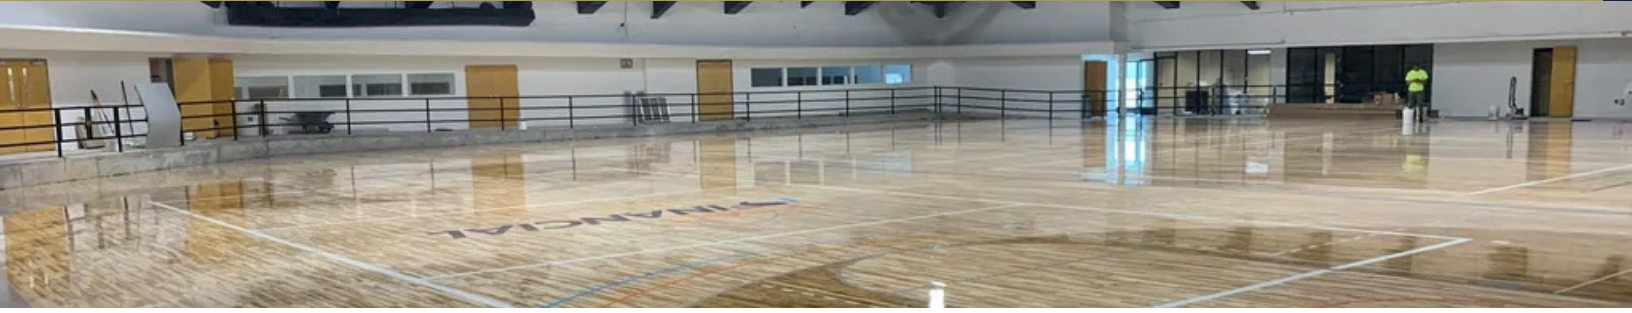

2025–2026
Axis Basketball Program

"The Pyramid gives our athletes a true home-court advantage; it's not just a facility, it's a statement. With pro-level courts, an unbeatable location, and the energy in this building, it's the perfect place to train, grow, and dominate. We're proud to call it the home of Axis Basketball."

Steve Williams
Director of Basketball,
Axis Sports Academy

Train where passion meets performance.

The Pyramid Sports Complex offers a state-of-the-art environment for Axis Sports Academy's basketball athletes to develop their skills, compete, and prepare for the next level. With world-class courts and an inspiring atmosphere, it's the perfect home for high-performance training.

Why Axis Basketball at the Pyramid?

Axis Sports Academy's basketball program thrives in this setting, offering consistent access to premium court space for training, scrimmages, and tournament play. Small-group instruction allows athletes to refine individual skills while tracking progress over time. The Pyramid fosters an immersive basketball culture, where the energy of the game and the legacy of the building create a unique and motivating atmosphere. Athletes work with top-tier coaches and trainers in an environment built for serious development and long-term success.

Beyond the Court

The Pyramid isn't just a place to play — it's a place to grow. The facility includes locker rooms, a recovery space, and modern on-site amenities designed to support athletic performance and well-being. Athletes benefit from access to Alpha Project Training, a performance center housed within the complex that offers expert-led speed, strength, and agility coaching. The surrounding area also features convenient dining and fitness options to help support student-athlete routines.
